

MoU with ASD Government Degree College for Women (A), Kakinada

Description of the Activity

The college has entered into an MoU with ASD Government Degree College for Women (A), Kakinada for mutual cooperation in various academic aspects and this exchange of MoU was hosted by them.

Date, Time and Venue

The program was held on 29.11.2023 at 12 PM in the chamber of Principal of ASD Government Degree College (A), Kakinada

Participants details and No. of attendees

This MoU is intended to benefit the students of both the college and the exchange of MoU was organized by the Department of Commerce of both the colleges.

Objective

This MoU between the two colleges is meant for strengthening the academic and administrative cooperation between the two colleges for providing a sustainable and value based education to the students of the colleges. The coverage of MoU spans across many aspects of cooperation such as curriculum transaction, sharing best practices, capacity building etc.

Details of Resource persons/ Presenters/ Guests

- Dr V Anantha Lakshmi, Principal, ASD GDC for Women (A)
- Dr P Subhashini, Principal, GDC, Pithapuram
- Smt. RRD Sirisha, Lecturer In charge, Department of Commerce, ASD GDC
- M Srinivasa Rao, Lecturer in Commerce, GDC, Pithapuram
- Faculty members of Department of Commerce of ASD GDC

Details of collaborating agencies

ASD Government Degree College for Women (A), Kakinada and Department of Commerce of the college

Brief summary of the proceedings

The program was hosted by the ASD GDC at its campus. The principals of both the colleges have exchanged the MoU on their parts. The faculty members have deliberated on the aspects of mutual cooperation in several areas and as an initial activity, the faculty of Department of Commerce of both the colleges have mutually agreed to start a certificate course in Retailing for the students of GDC, Pithapuram. The course structure and mode of delivery were discussed and agreed.

Later the Dr P Subhashini, Principal of GDC, Pithapuram had addressed the 3rd B Com students of ASD GDC in the inauguration of PG CET Coaching Camp for them as Chief Guest and stressed the need for higher education to withstand the competition in the job market. This was followed by the address of Dr V Anantha Lakshmi, Principal, ASD GDC about the objectives of the program and need for active participation.

Outcome

The program aimed at creating synergy in terms of mutual cooperation and sharing of resources. This MoU paves way for creating sustainable practices for smooth delivery of academic processes and to create a sense of sharing among the students of the colleges. Students of both the colleges will benefit from the activities under this MoU.

Summary of feedback

Students welcomed this initiative and expressed their willingness to participate in the future endeavours under this MoU and all the faculty members have expressed their appreciation towards the efforts of Principal for this kind of initiatives.

Pictures/ News clips

